MISCELLANEOUS CASE NO.

CV 16 80127 MISC.

APPLICATION AND DECLARATION
OF KATHERINE F. WENGER IN SUPPORT OF SUBPOENA FOR
IDENTITY OF INFRINGER UNDER 17
U.S.C.A. § 512

16 I, KATHERINE F. WENGER, declare:

17 1. I am an attorney at law duly licensed to practice before all the courts in the 18 State of California as well as the Northern District of California, and am a partner in the law firm
19 of Brown, Gee & Wenger, the attorneys for Behavior Analysts, Inc. ("BAI"). I have personal 20 knowledge of the facts contained herein and if called as a witness would and could so testify.

21 2. BAI owns the copyright for what is commonly referred to as the ABLLS-R
22 Protocol. A true and correct copy of the copyright registration certificate of that work is attached
23 hereto as Exhibit A.

24 3. In May, BAI learned that, without its permission and/or consent, a copy of the 25 ABLLS-R Protocol was being offered for download at 26 <https://slpemad.files.wordpress.com/2015/01/ablls-r-protocol.pdf> (a website hosted by 27 Automattic, Inc.) – a posting that constitutes an infringement of BAI's copyright in the ABLLS-
28 R Protocol.

1           4.       On June 9, 2016, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 512(c), BAI sent formal notice to 2 Automatic of this copyright infringement and requested that Automatic take down/disable the
3 offending material. BAI followed Automatic's posted procedures for doing so. Attached
4 hereto as Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of the DMCA notice that BAI sent to Automatic
5 on June 9, 2016, with followup email on June 10, 2016. BAI has asked Automatic for the name
6 of the individual who created the website at issue but Automatic has refused to provide that
7 name without a court order or subpoena.

8           5.       BAI has undertaken diligent efforts to obtain the name, address and/or other
9 identifying information about the individual who created and owns the website at issue and/or 10 posted the material at issue, but to this date has not been able to locate any such 11 information.

12           6.       The purpose of this subpoena is to obtain the identity of an infringer/individual
13 posting the infringing material and this information will only be used for the purpose of 14 protecting Behavior Analysts, Inc.'s rights under Title 17 of the United States Code.

15           I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the 16 foregoing is true and correct and that this declaration was executed on June 10, 2016, at Walnut
17 Creek, California.

Mr. Sieminski:

I represent Behavior Analysts, Inc. ("BAI") and am writing you regarding the infringement of BAI's copyright in the ABLLS-R Protocol (the "Protocol"). As is evident from the ABLLS-R itself, BAI is the author of the Protocol and owns the copyright in that work. See Ex. A. BAI recently came across the website <https://slpemad.files.wordpress.com/2015/01/ablls-r-protocol.pdf> (which, as you know, is hosted by Automattic) which makes the ABLLS-R available for downloading and copying without having obtained BAI's permission to do so. BAI has never authorized the use of the Protocol in this manner.

Therefore, through this letter BAI demands that you immediately (1) remove this material from your website and servers, (2) provide written confirmation that you have done so, (3) provide the identity (i.e. name and address) of the individual responsible for posting the material at issue, and (4) if possible, also provide a list of any and all persons who have downloaded this material (IP address can be provided if that is the only information available).

In addition, please consider this formal DMCA notification that the Protocol that is available for download on <https://slpemad.files.wordpress.com/2015/01/ablls-r-protocol.pdf> is infringing upon BAI's copyright. In particular, this letter is official notification under Section 512(c) of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA") to effect removal of the above-reported infringement. BAI requests that you immediately remove the specified posting and prevent the infringer, who is identified by its web address, from posting infringing material to your servers in the future. Please be advised that the law requires you, as a service provider, to "expeditiously remove or disable access to" the infringing material upon receiving this notice. Noncompliance may result in a loss of immunity for liability under the DMCA.

If BAI does not receive the information requested and/or is not able to verify the removal of the material from your website by June 21, 2016, it will be forced to file legal action to obtain the removal of such material and will be entitled to recover all of the attorneys' fees and costs it incurs in doing so. Should you have any questions, or wish to discuss this matter via phone, I can be reached at 925-291-4455.

Fenton,

While I do not agree that my letter did not comply with DMCA requirements and while we have already provided a complete DMCA notice both by letter and by submitting such a notice through the form fill out identified below, please consider the email contained herein a further DMCA takedown notice in response to your email.

1. I believe in good faith that the posting and use of the content found at <https://slpemad.files.wordpress.com/2015/01/ablls-r-protocol.pdf>, is not authorized by the copyright owner (Behavior Analyst, Inc.), its agent, or the law
2. The information in this further notice and the attached letter is true and correct
3. I swear under penalty of perjury, that I am a person authorized to act on the copyright owner (Behavior Analysts, Inc.)'s behalf.

Regards,
Katherine Wenger

Hi there,

As a DMCA takedown notice, the letter you have submitted is incomplete.

Specifically, you have not provided us with:

* A statement by you: (a) that you believe in good faith that the use of the content that you claim to infringe your copyright is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law; (b) that the information in the notice is correct; and (c) that under penalty of perjury, you are either the copyright owner or a person authorized to act on their behalf.

Please respond at your convenience with a complete DMCA notice by using the following form:

<http://automattic.com/dmca> Alternatively, please respond with the missing information described above, along with the information from your previous email to submit a complete DMCA notice.

Please note that you are required to give consideration to whether a use of material is fair before submitting a takedown notification, as a result of the decision in Lenz v. Universal:

<https://www.eff.org/press/releases/important-win-fair-use-dancing-baby-lawsuit>

Additionally, be aware that your notice, including any contact information you have provided (address, telephone number, and email address), will be forwarded to the user who uploaded the material at issue.

Secondly, to your other requests regarding information on the users who uploaded and accessed the material: We (Automattic) take the protection of our users' private data very seriously. We consider items of information such as a user's email address or IP address to be private information.

Automattic's headquarters are in San Francisco, California. It is our policy to turn over private information only upon receipt of either (1) an order, specifically naming Automattic as a party, that has been validly issued by a United States court or (2) a subpoena that complies with Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and/or the California Discovery Act.

For legal requests from outside the United States, we ask that the request be served via a United States court or enforcement agency under the procedures of an applicable mutual assistance legal treaty.

You can read more about our legal guidelines here:

<https://en.support.wordpress.com/report-blogs/legal-guidelines/>

All orders or subpoenas should be sent to court-orders@wordpress.com. Please note that per our policies, we will forward any legal process we receive to our users, and give them an opportunity to challenge disclosure of their personal information before we release it. We also charge an administrative fee of USD $125/hour for compliance with validly issued and served civil subpoenas and reserve the right to review and object to any legal process we receive.

Regards,
Fenton
